MEMO: [OBJ] Eligibility

Questions about eligibility in Rules and Regulations and the wording of 12.v arose recently. To clarify this a special board meeting was arranged Saturday morning to discuss the issue.

With respect to playoff eligibility all of 12.9 must be read in whole.

As such, 12.9 iv sets the eligible divisions available to a player and 12.9 v sets the lowest division available to a player.

The intent is to allow players to play up to a higher division and not to be able to stack down.

Present for the discussion was Rory McKeown, Darren A, Andrew Petti, Pete Rowe
